

D. Vijayprakash holds M.A. English from Osmania University and is pursuing PhD at Kakatiya University on Canadian Literature. He got through AP SET in 2012. He has published eleven articles and presented seven papers in seminars and conferences. He has nine years of teaching experience. His interested areas include British Fiction, Canadian Literature, Indian English Literature and PostColonial Literature. He has given two extension lectures at Govt Degree and PG College, Jammikunta. He is also extending his services as NSS Programme Officer of University College of Arts and Social Sciences.